ABOUT THE KROC

Our Mission Statement

The Salvation Army Ray & Joan Kroc Corps Community Center is a gathering place providing opportunities to build character, confidence, capacity and hope in a safe Christian caring environment.

The Salvation Army Ray and Joan Kroc Corps Community Center of Boston is the largest health, fitness, and community center of its kind in New England. Located on a spacious 6.5-acre campus in the Boston neighborhood of Dorchester, Massachusetts, the 90,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art facility is open to people of all ages from throughout Greater Boston. It features cutting-edge strength, cardiovascular and fitness facilities, as well as Boston's largest indoor aquatics park with an indoor/outdoor waterslide and zero-depth-entry pool; a gymnasium with an NCAA-regulation-size basketball court, high ropes course and three-story rock-climbing wall; turf soccer field; outdoor play space and spray ground; specialized fitness and recreational programming, including group exercise classes, team sports and swimming lessons and more. The Center has ample safe and well-lit parking and is easily accessible by the Fairmont Commuter Rail line.
